

Silverpoint – Supreme Court Declares Contracts Illegal

Court: Spanish Supreme Court

Case Date: March 2020

Summary:

A British woman challenged her timeshare contract with Silverpoint, citing illegal terms.

Key Findings:

- The court found that the contract included illegal perpetuity clauses and lacked specific information about the accommodation and duration.

Outcome:

The contract was annulled, and Silverpoint was ordered to refund all payments, including interest and legal costs.

Impact:

This ruling reinforced the illegality of vague and indefinite timeshare contracts, prompting further claims against similar practices.
